

BABY GIRL PRODUCTIONS

AMaysn Grace Works started in 1999 with the production of "I'm Weak, Lord!" Now, as we move to another level, we're introducing Baby Girl Productions! When you see, witness and experience a Baby Girl Production, we want you to feel as though you just spent time with your "friends" laughing and talking. More importantly, we want you to hear God's Word to His children and remember life lessons taught to us by our elders.

Our Mission STILL is to provide works (songs, poetry, dramatic works, musical theater, skits, etc.) to inspire Christian believers to go on in the name of the Lord by means of moral entertainment that will support personal examination and encourage social change.

Our vision is to impact the entertainment industry by providing an alternative of Christian based theater productions, videos, TV shows and movies for the uplifting of God's Kingdom.

DOROTHY MAYS CLARK

In 1997, Dorothy accepted her first professional acting job and has been performing and pursuing her career ever since.

She organized the small group Visions in 1998 that consisted of poets, actors and singers who collaborated to present performances designed to make audiences both laugh and cry through their work of mime type presentations. At the time, Dorothy was working for the City of Austin as a Performer with "Dowser Dan's One Ring Circus" which traveled to the city's elementary schools to teach Water Conservation.

In 1999, Dorothy founded AMaysn Grace Works with the mission to provide works (songs, poetry, dramatic works, musical theater, skits, etc.) to inspire Christian believers to go on in the name of the Lord by means of moral entertainment that will support personal examination and encourage social change. In the State Theater production of "Do You Believe In Love?", Dorothy was honored to receive a kind compliment from her lead actress, Angela Rawna. Angela stated, "For you to be so young, you know so much. You are amazing!" This is a compliment that she cherishes considering that Angela has gone on to win several acting awards and recognitions and has a recurring role on NBC's Friday Night Lights.

Dorothy has been blessed to sing with The Modern Black Mass Choir of Fisk University and Extended Grace. She has also been honored to share the stage with such recognized artists as Hezekiah Walker, Norman Hutchins, De La Soul, Snoop Dogg and Damon Albarn as well as opportunity to sing with Chester D. T. Baldwin and Music That Ministers on Sing it on Sunday Morning I. Her voice can also be heard featured on the debut projects of G.O.S.P.E.L. and Sheran Keyton and God's Living Sacrifice. Since that time, Dorothy has been honored to serve as a Soloist on several programs and projects, such as:

- The Austin Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.'s Founders Day Celebration at the DoubleTree Hotel
- The 2011 Central Texas Juneteenth Community Program
- She is also excited to be preparing to go on tour with Damon Albarn and The Heavy Seas

Dorothy's extensive credits go well beyond the stage, but she knows that she would not be who she is today without the support and encouragement of some very key people in her life. She is especially thankful to the little person that has given her the greatest role ever!

"Zuri Mahogany Mays Clark, I absolutely love and adore you! God blessed me with an angel. I'm honored to be your supporting cast because you're my STAR!!!"

And, most importantly, Dorothy gives all praise and thanks to God for sending His Son, Jesus Christ, to die on the cross for her sins and for giving her a chance to praise Him and giving her the gifts and talents that He has given her. She is honored to give them right back to Him for His Glory and Honor!
